Summary:

The objective of this cover letter is to point out that the Honda test report has incorrect data, data that cannot be validated, data that was incorrectly labeled, or data that does not exist. Attached for each Honda test group is the original ballistic data from the report. ISI (Inflation Systems Inc) has pulled the original data from the test server and re-plotted all the groups. The findings are attached behind the original.

Attached are appendixes "A" through "H" that were first issued in a test report named, "Honda Validation Test Report". The original report was assembled by engineers from GIO Japan using ISI test data for the express purpose of presenting the P-SDI test results to Honda Japanese Engineers.

Appendix "A"

The baseline deployment testing for the P-SDI inflator was built under EAR 8A249. The test EAR and the test data for EAR8A249A04 -A010 cannot be located. The build EAR 8A249 is labeled as a Huguchi Segmented Burst Tape Study not Baseline units for Honda.
